Program: Brad Willson, USD 345 Superintendent

He lived in Newton where he was a wrestler in high school. He has worked in education for 28 yrs. starting in Blue Valley, then Leavenworth and Spring Hill. The school board members have a variety of views but one purpose. USD 345 challenges are 1. motivation to get better and not remain content with our success and 2. declining enrollment. He always wants to do even better with emphasis on safety and security. He is committed to listening to parents who are the first role models. He is grateful for qualified staff and community support. Employers expect schools to teach communication and work habits in addition to the basics. He keeps a copy of the Optimist Creed on his desk.
